

GENE

GLOBAL EDUCATION YOUTH AWARD

- GENE is launching the 5th round of the Global Education Award to highlight quality initiatives in the framework of the European Declaration on Global Education to 2050
- This edition of the Award is the first to have a specific focus, highlighting youth-led initiatives.
- Through the Award, GENE also facilitates learning from quality Global Education youth initiatives to improve policy on Global Education and youth across Europe.

WHO CAN APPLY?

The award is open for applications from organisations that work towards the vision and aims of Global Education as elaborated in the Dublin Declaration, specifically:

- legally constituted, youth-led organisations at local, national and international level in European countries (national and local youth councils, international youth organisations working at all levels)
- legally constituted youth serving organisations (CSOs, LRGs, etc.) at local, national and international level in European countries.

CRITERIA

Eligible youth-led initiatives are:

- Thematically focused on Global Education, as defined in the European Declaration on Global Education to 2050 (for example global-local challenges, solidarity, sustainability, human rights, global citizenship and social justice through education, for full definition see link)
- Non-formal education initiatives for and by young people
- Innovative, action-oriented initiatives working towards positive change through youth leadership and youth engagement

APPLICATION PROCESS

GENE's 5th Global Education Award is launched on 18 April 2024 through an open call that includes:

- A written application (max 1000 words)
- A 2-3 min video
- Agreeing to participate in a peer evaluation of another initiative

TIMEFRAME

- 18 April 2024 | Launch of the GENE Global Education Award open call
- 9 September 2024 | Deadline for submissions
- Award Ceremony | Fall 2024 (Date and place TBC)