

In celebration of the Audio-Visual Heritage Day

An event under the patronage of the Romanian Commission for UNESCO

The Second Part of the Exploratory Workshop

WOMEN IN COMMUNITIES – AUDIO-VISUAL REPRESENTATIONS OF TRADITIONAL WORK PATTERNS AROUND THE WORLD

Expanding the Research Network

PROGRAM

WEDNESDAY, 23 OCTOBER 2024 11.00-14.00 (EEST)

Room 223, Bd. Vasile Pârvan 4

10.00 Opening Address

Codrin Tăut, the Romanian Commission for UNESCO

Panel

Otilia Hedeşan, Diana Mihuş, (West University of Timişoara, Romania, Research Center for Heritage and Anthropology)

Women's Voices, Women's Images, Women's Knowhow. An overview on West University of Timişoara Folklore Archive

Raphaela Value Sigamata, (IBS University, Papua New Guinea, coordinator of academic programs focusing on international cooperation in the context of digital learning)

The evolving role of Taro (Colocasia esculenta) in the livelihood of the Umu Community, Kimbe, West New Britain. Papua New Guinea

Michael Kasombo Tshibanda (L'Université de Lubumbashi, Democratic Republic of Congo)

Mila Maeva (Institute of Ethnology and Folklore Studies with the Ethnographic Museum, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences)

Digitalization of Archival Materials and Presentation of Traditions

Valentin Munteanu (West University of Timişoara, Faculty of Economy and Business Administration)

Discussions

Moderator Dana Percec (West University of Timişoara)